

A Royal Retirement = Alyce King

Written by occalumni
Wednesday, 14 May 2014 23:05 -

---

Alyce King's last full week with the OCC is next week. There will be a retirement celebration in the Denver District Office on May 22nd - Thursday afternoon.

Those of you who know Alyce, know they broke the mold when she was born! She's been with the OCC for 37 years. Most was spent in the former regional and district offices in Kansas City, and the last ten years in Denver on the ITS staff. The legacy continues in Alyce's son Andre', who is an examiner assigned to the problem bank division in Chicago. Her plans are to return "home" to Kansas City.

To wish her well in retirement you may drop her a line at alyce.king@occ.treas .gov.

For more details or if you have a personal anecdote that you would like to share with everyone at the retirement celebration, contact LaContis Flavors or Eric Hansen via e-mail at eric.hansen@occ.treas.gov

or

lacontis.flavors@occ.treas.gov

.